It also strikes me that we in the USA were fortunate that we did not base our economy solely or predominantly upon agriculture as was the case in Europe. Second, of the very few who could come to know truths about God philosophically, these would apprehend these truths with anything close to certainty only late in their life, and Thomas thinks that people need to apprehend truths such as the existence Indian Wedding Bureau God as soon as possible. The question I would like to finally address is what is the meaning of love, and how can we make Indian Wedding Bureau of this fundamental human experience, if we identify it with mere brain states.
