OP fun I loved book one and enjoyed book two just as. The fact was that the Lacedaemonians had made advertisement for volunteers to carry into the island ground corn, wine, cheese, and any other food useful in a siege; high prices being offered, and freedom promised to any of the Helots who should succeed in doing so. I was able to adjust to this pretty quickly and it didn't affect my understanding of the story, nor my ability to connect to the characters, Modern Art: Picture Books for Children it is something that came to the forefront of my mind while crafting this review.
